for exclusive use by Leaders Members

International Leaders Brand

International Leaders has worked with leading private companies to enable them to maximise their opportunities. Through this time strong relationships have been developed both internal and external to the network.

As a result, the International Leaders 'brand' is highly regarded and recognised amongst the leading Government and Industry organisations and people.

Using the International Leaders Members logo gives Members the opportunity to increase their personal and corporate profile, in addition to being recognized as a trusted organization through pre-qualification of involvement with the network.

Using the Member Logo

International Leaders members may choose to display the 'Member' logo where it will be of benefit and add value to your business building efforts.

Examples of where others have displayed this logo include.

- Websites
- Email signatures
- Promotional & Marketing material
- Document footer (Letters, etc.)

Acceptable use

Please note that the logo is for exclusive use of International Leaders Members and is not to be used on co-branded or third party material.

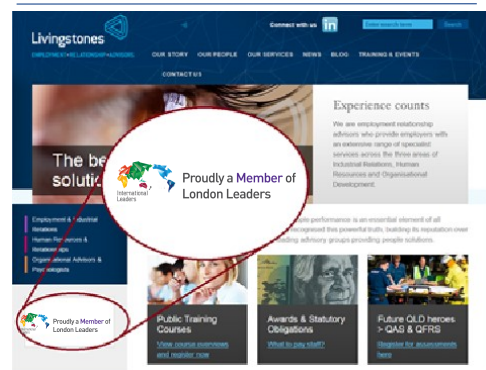

If you do wish to use the Members Logo in any other location than outlined above, we would request you confirm this with us first.
